

Scholastica students attend MUN Conference in India

A group of seven students – from class XI and XII – along with a teacher from Scholastica, Senior Section, Uttara attended Vivek High School Model United Nation (VHSMUN) Conference 2014 held in Chandigarh, India from November 17 to 20.

This year's VHSMUN surpassed the level of interaction from the previous years, bringing together more than 1000 high school students from over 15 countries in the world.

Students of Scholastica represented Chile, Iran, Sudan and Liberia on human rights, women's rights, Ebola outbreak, Arab league, G20 Summit etc and performed well. The students also carried out a presentation where they represented Bangladesh.